1. Spring 2022 BOT Meeting

February 11, 2022 – 1:34pm

To Pete K, Chairman:

According to the hotel’s website, to cancel without being charged requires 72 hours’ notice to the hotel. I would like to book for 3 nights (Sun., Mon & Tues. nights); if the meetings conclude Tuesday, I’d like to go home, but I’ll still be charged for Tuesday night. Can you maybe talk to the hotel about waiving the 72-hour cancellation requirement?

P.S.: I’m sure I’m not the only one with this dilemma, that’s why I’m posting it to the Trustee Line rather than emailing Pete directly.

I will check with the Cherry Hill Hotel tomorrow to see if we can get a relaxation of that clause or a possible workaround.

Dear Sisters and Brothers...

As I mentioned in my last Trustee Line submission that I would contact the Cherry Hill Hotel regarding the 72-hour cancellation clause John B from Area 13 raised concerns about, and our representative responded with this email after we spoke this morning...

- A reservation may be cancelled without penalty up until 3 days/ 72 hours prior to arrival; thereafter, the individual guest would be subject to a one night's room & tax penalty.
- A reservation arrival and/or departure date may be adjusted at any time, and subject to availability of guestrooms if extended the stay
- If a guest requires an early departure, we prefer notice by 4:00 PM the day prior to early departure, or at the very latest, the guest must vacate the room before 11:00 AM on the early departure day and notify the front desk of the early departure at that time. No penalties to apply for early departure within these guidelines.

What this means is if we conclude on the second day (Tuesday) you will have until 11:00 on Wednesday to cancel the third night with no penalty of payment...

I hope this clears up confusion and concern about being on the hook for a third night if we only go two days...With that in mind we ask that you begin booking rooms as soon as possible so we start to get a feel for how many Trustees will be attending...

Thank you for allowing me to be of service ODAAT

Thanks for the information about the hotel, Pete. The problem for me is that I've booked a flight assuming the meeting will go the three days. I will have an extra day to rest up if it doesn't go that long.
